Numb. 4318.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, August 26. 1715.

London, August 26.

Extract from the Act passed on the 20th Instant, intitled An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the Pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors.

'WHereas in and by an Act of Parliament made in the last Sessions of Parliament, and in the first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of His Majesty's Houshold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great-Britain, it is Enacted, That the Lord-High-Treasurer of Great-Britain, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, should and are thereby authorized and required, out of any Monies granted or to be granted by Parliament for the Use of the Publick, forthwith to issue and pay the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds to any Person or Persons who should seize and secure the Person of the Pretender, whenever he should Land, or attempt to Land, in any of His Majesty's Dominions; To the End that the Encouragement and Reward for a Service so Important may be rendered Sure and Effectual, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Lord-High-Treasurer of Great-Britain, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, shall and are hereby authorized and required, out of any Monies granted or to be granted by Parliament to the Use of the Publick, forthwith to issue the Sum of One Hundred Thousand Pounds, to any Person or Persons, being Natives, or Foreigners, who shall seize or secure, alive or dead, the Person of the Pretender, whenever he shall Land, or attempt to Land in Great-Britain or Ireland, or any other His Majesty's Dominions; And if any of the Persons who have adhered to or assisted, or who shall adhere to or assist the said Pretender, shall seize and secure him as aforesaid, he or they who shall so seize or secure him, shall have His Majesty's Gracious General Pardon, and shall also receive the said Reward, to be paid in manner aforesaid.

'And be it further Enacted, That in case any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, shall happen to be killed in seizing or securing, alive or dead, the Person of the said Pretender as aforesaid, That then the Executors or Administrators, or such Person or Persons to whom the Right of Administration of the Personal Estate of each Person so killed shall belong, shall have and receive respectively the same Share or Proportion of the said One Hundred Thousand Pounds, as their several and respective Testators or Intestates would have been entituled unto had they been living.

The following Address from the County of Essex was presented to his Majesty by Sir Henry Fetherston, Baronet, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Manchester.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Essex, at the Assizes held at Chelmsford, the 10th Day of August, 1715.

Dread Sovereign,

WE do with most unfeigned Loyalty and Submission beg Leave in this great Conjuncture, to declare our Resolution to withstand the Invasion of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown, whether supported by the remains of Armies so often vanquished in vain, or invited by such of your Subjects whose doubtful Expressions of Duty and Allegiance have heretofore given just Suspicions of their Inclinations, and whose late turbulent Practices have openly shewn, that rather than not Command, they would Triumph in the Ruin of their Country.

We are truely sensible what it is to bear the Burthen of the British Crown at so critical a time as this, to Govern and compose a divided Nation, to recover the Balance of Europe, to heal broken Alliances, to restore the Credit of a brave People sacrificed to private Ambition, to inlarge the Terms of our Commerce, and to settle us upon the Foundation of Peace at Home and Glory Abroad.

This is the great Work which Providence decreed for your Majesty when it placed you at the Head and Support of these Kingdoms; a Work of immense Labour and Sollicitude, only to be recompenced, at present, by the Noble Satisfaction of making Nations Happy at the Expence of your own Quiet and Repose.

As the Common Danger ought to unite us, so the Common Cause wherein we are engaged, shall always animate us with that Courage which becomes Loyalty against Faction, Freedom against Slavery, and the Lovers of their Country against those who would cover it with Blood and Desolation.

And those Assurances your Majesty has given us of your firm Resolution to Support and Maintain our Constitution in Church and State, makes it both our Duty and our Interest earnestly to desire that your Reign may be long over us, and that these Kingdoms may be established in your Royal Family upon a Foundation never to be removed.

The following Address from the Corporation of Malden was presented to his Majesty by Samuel Tufnell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Manchester.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the antient Corporation of Malden in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

BEING sensible of the Happiness we already enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and of the just Prospect of its being continued to our Posterity by a numerous Race of Protestant Princes in your Royal Family; we take this Opportunity of expressing our utmost Abhorrence of those Seditious and Rebellious Tumults which have of late been carried on in several Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, spirited up and supported by a restless Faction, who ungratefully repine at those Blessings, which though so ill deserved, they must unavoidably be partakers of under the Influence of your Majesty's Government.

Encouraged by such Traiterous Practices at Home, no Wonder our Enemies have threatened us with an Invasion from Abroad; of which we had by this time probably felt the unhappy Effects, had it not been well guarded against by the Care and Vigilance of your able and faithful Ministry, and the speedy and vigorous Resolutions of both Houses of Parliament, all intirely devoted to the Interest of your Majesty, and consequently to that of Great-Britain.

May that All ruling Providence, which for the Defence of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, placed you on the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, still preserve you to protect and adorn them: May the Imperial Crown of these Realms always sit easy on your Sacred Brow: May the British Sceptre, ever steady in that Hand which so seasonably interposed to rescue us from the dangers of a Popish Pretender, long continue the Support of your Friends and a Terror only to those who would be glad to see it tremble.

On this Occasion we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall never be wanting, as far as in us lies, to exert our Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government; always behaving ourselves with that Duty and Affection which becomes the most Loyal Subjects to the most Indulgent of Princes.

The following Address from the City of Lincoln was presented to his Majesty by Sir John Tyrwhitt, Bart. and Richard Grantham, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ancaster and Kesteven, Lord Great-Chamberlain of England.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the Antient City of Lincoln.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, crave Leave to lay before your Majesty our utter Abhorrence of those wicked and self-designing Principles and Actions of all such Persons who have lately Riotously and Traiterously assembled themselves together, and have, contrary to the dictates of their Religion and Rules of the Laws of this Kingdom, violated the Peace and disturbed the Quiet of your Majesty's Government, and have also given Encouragement to the Traiterous Attempts of the Pretender.

We therefore your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, do give your Majesty this faithful Assurance, that, as we have within our Jurisdiction duely executed the Laws relating to the publick Peace of this Kingdom, and have hitherto prevented all Riotous Meetings whatsoever; so we will, to the utmost of our Endeavours take effectual Care for the future to withstand and suppress all Riotous Assemblies, and strictly put the

Laws

Laws in Execution against all Persons who shall, either by Words or Actions, impiously presume to sow Sedition, or raise Tumults among your Subjects, or any Ways espouse the Traiterous Designs of the Pretender against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

And we shall always pray to Almighty God to preserve your Majesty from all Treasons and secret Plots whatsoever; to grant your Majesty a long and Peaceable Reign over us, and to secure to us the Blessings of a glorious and lasting Succession of your Royal Family in these Kingdoms.

Hamburgh, Aug. 27. 'They write from Hanover, 'that they have already substituted the Arms of Brunswick, instead of those of Denmark, in several Places 'of the Duchy of Bremen: That M. Stryck, the 'Hanoverian Minister, has had a Conference at Leipsick with the King of Poland's Minister, to receive, 'as it is said, the Sums of Money for which the Electoral House of Saxony did formerly Mortgage the 'County of Mansfeld to the Electoral House of Brunswick.

'We hear from Stralsund, that the King of Sweden 'has sent, first a Captain, and afterwards a Major, to 'Carelscroon, with Orders for the Fleet to put to Sea 'immediately, and to post itself before the Isle of 'Rugen, altho' they were no more than 16 or 17 'Line of Battle Ships. The English Envoy, Mr. Jeffereys, is gone from Stralsund to Rugen, where he 'has taken a House, in order to be at hand, and ready 'to retire in case the Allies take that Island. We 'hear from Copenhagen, that Admiral Raab has set 'sail with the grand Fleet, and that he takes with him 'the rest of the Transport-Ships that were in the Port 'of Frederickstoort, which are laden with a prodigious 'Quantity of Cannon, Ammunition, and military Utensils: So that all things are prepared for the Attack of that important Island. And as the great Artillery is also upon the Road to come immediately to 'the Camp, his Prussian Majesty has given order to 'every Regiment to provide themselves with their 'Contingent of Gabions and Fascines, to be in full 'Readiness at the Arrival of the Artillery. 'Tis 'written from the Danish Camp before Stralsund, that 'the Garrison of the Penemunder Fort consisted of a 'Colonel named Knufe, a Native of Finland, one 'Major, 3 Captains, 3 Lieutenants, 3 Ensigns, and 300 'Soldiers. That under the Fort there lay a Swedish 'Privateer, who annoyed the Besiegers much; and 'that the Governor had sent two other Privateers to 'fetch more Men, which General Ambsim having 'Notice of, he caused the Attack to be made that 'Night: And the Fort was no sooner taken than the 'two Privateers appeared, having with them a great 'Number of Men; but seeing they had nothing more 'to do, they returned back to Rugen.

Hague, Aug. 26. 'The States have received by the 'last Courier dispatched by their Minister at Vienna, 'the agreeable News that the Emperour has approved 'of the greatest part of the Articles of the Barrier 'Treaty; and that his Imperial Majesty has given such 'Orders, that the rest may be terminated in two or 'three Conferences, between his Plenipotentiaries and those of this Republick, and the Treaty thereby brought to a Conclusion. The same 'Minister remarks, that the Honour of that Success 'ought to be given to Prince Eugene, who, it is said, 'has engaged the Emperor to given up divers Advantages which that Court looked upon as essential. That 'Prince expresses upon all Occasions great Favour to 'this State, and upon that Foundation we flatter ourselves that the Treaty may be signed in less than a 'Month's time.

'The Swedish Envoy, M. Palmquist, has embarked himself and all his Family on a Danish Ship 'at Amsterdam, to sail for Gottenburg, after having 'made his Wife believe to the last Minute that he 'would carry her to her Father's in the Duchy of 'Fehrden.

London, August 26.

We hear that a Warrant is issued by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for taking into Custody the Author and Printer of the Flying-Post, for having inserted in one of those Papers indecent Reflections on the King of Sweden, and in another a most scandalous Epitaph on the late French King.

London, August 26.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock was 98 one half to 98 one eight. Bank 133 one half to 132 three quarters. India 138 one half to 138. African 18.

The Directors of the Beach-Oil Company give Notice, That all Shares who do not, pursuant to the last Call, compleat the whole Payment due upon their Shares before the 7th Day of September next, shall be excluded from all manner of Right, Claim, or Benefit in the Company (as they by particular Articles the Proprietors expressly provided) and their Shares shall be forfeited and sold to others in their Places.

By Command.

AT the King's Theatre in the Hay-Market to Morrow, being Saturday, the 27th of August, will be perform'd an Opera call'd, Hydaspes. With the Chariots and several Scenes belonging to Amadis; with the Forrest of Pine. The part of Berenice to be perform'd by Signora Margarita de Grua. Mandane by Signora Aubert, lately arriv'd. Hydaspes by Signor Cavaliero Nicolino Grimaldi. Daraid by Signora Diana. With several Entertainments of Dancing; Particularly the Skipper, by Monsieur de la Garde, and Mrs Bullock. The Pit and Boxes to be put together, and no Persons to be admitted without Tickets, which will be deliver'd out this Day and to Morrow, at White's Chocolate-House, and at the Theatre, at Half a Guinea each. The Number of Tickets positively not to exceed 400 upon the Stage 15 s. Gallery 4 s.

Dropt or Stolen from a Gentleman on Friday last, a Gold Watch of a small Size, with a double Case, Silver Cock, made by Fra. Greg, N° 580. Whoever brings the Watch to Geo. Middleton, Goldsmith, at the 3 Crowns in Hungerford-Market in the Strand, shall have 8 Guineas Reward, no Questions asked: If otherwise offered to Sale or Pawn, Stop it.

A noted and eminent Writing-School in the heart of the City, is to be dispos'd of, the Master going into the Country. N.B. Little or no thing will be required for the Will, but the buying of several Things to the Value of 40 l. or more. Inquire of Mr. Robinson, a Goldsmith, at the Golden Ball in Cheapside.

A very good Chariot, not much worse; and a very good Four-wheel Chaise; to be Sold Reasonable. Mr. Salmon, a Carpenter, in Tuttle-street, Westminster, has the showing of them.

To be Lett from Michaelmas next,

The Capital Messuage or Mansion-House belonging to the Carpenter's Company in London, called Carpenters Hall, (situate over-against London-wall, near Little Moor-gate, with large Warehouses, very fit for a Merchant, late in the Possession of Sir Gabriel Roberts, deceas'd.) Inquire at the Clerk's, or Porter's House, at the said Hall.

A handsom Gentleman's Chariot, Painted, fit for Town or Country, to be Sold. Inquire at a Coachmaker's, in St. John's-street, West-Smithfield.

R. Carter at the Woolpack in Cornhill having just now received 400 Hamburgh Lottery Tickets, with duplicats the Number that was subscribed for him, and the last Share to be had from them, which bought at the second Hand; desires this Notice that all Persons may be supplied with them by him at the Current Price. And those that purchase 6 Tickets, and upwards, 3 l. each in Prize, shall have an Allowance made them of 4 Prizes in every Six 6 Tickets bought of him; and in Case of Success that the said Richard Carter will then pay such Person so making the Assurance a Premium of the lowest Denomination, in Sterling Money, without any Abatement or Deduction whatsoever. N.B. That at the said Carter's Office will be kept Numerical Tables and Regular Books for the Dutch Lottery, which began to be drawn Yesterday.

Right Batavia Arrack, neat as it came over, and as good as ever came to England, at 14 s. per Gallon. Also superfine Sweet Lucca Sallet Oyl, from Florence, just landed, and sold by the Jar, at 21 s. per Gallon, and upwards. Great Choice of Florence Wine, at 15 s. per Chest. To be Sold at a Cellar under the House of Lyon, the lower end of Bartholomew-lane, near the Royal Exchange, from 8 in the Morning to 6 in the Evening.

For SALE by the CANDLE,

On Wednesday, the 31st Instant, at Lloyd's Coffee-house in Lombard-street, at 5 a Clock in the Afternoon, (by the Candle of Wine is a Lott,) viz. 79 Butts of excellent New Sherries Wines, deep, bright, strong, fresh, and fat, as came from Xeres, now in the Vaults of Mr. Pennycook, Merchant, in Love-lane, Eastcheap. To be seen and tasted next Monday and Tuesday from 9 to 4, and from 6 to 8, and all Wednesday (as above) till the Sale begins. To be Sold by Tho. Hatton and Wm Gilliat, Brokers.

For SALE by the CANDLE,

By Order of the Honourable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs.

On Wednesday the 31st Instant, at 1 a Clock in the Afternoon, in the Long-Room in the Custom-House, London, (Pursuant to an Act of Parliament made in the 12th of Queen Ann) a Parcel of decay'd Wines, debar'd of all Duties: And a Parcel of Sweetmeat Wines, Condemn'd in the Court of Exchequer of all Duties; to be taken away with all Faults. To be viewed at the King's Ware-house at the Custom-House London, on Monday and Tuesday, the 29th and 30th Instant, from 7 to 12, and from 1 till 5, and on Wednesday from 7 to 12.

Just Published,

The Works of Mr. Edmund Spencer, carefully corrected, by a Collation of all the former editions, to which are added, several Cuts. Containing, The Fairy Queen, Shepherd's Calendar, &c. Published by Mr. Hughes. To these Books are added, A Glossary, explaining the old and obscure Words; The Life of the Author; and a Prefatory Discourse on his Writings. Printed for Jacob Tonson at Shakespear's-Head against Catherine-street in the Strand. Where those Gentlemen who have subscribed for the large Paper, may have their Books delivered.

To Morrow will be Published,

The Duty of Glorifying God, for the Redemption of our Redemption. A Sermon Preach'd at Tunbridge-Wells on Sunday, July 17, 1715. By Joshua Whately, M. A. of Trinity College in Cambridge. Printed for R. Burleigh in Amen-Corner.

To Morrow will be Published,

The Present State of Great-Britain. To which is annexed, Sold by R. Burleigh in Amen-Corner. Price 3 d. or 30 s. a Hundred. Address to the Tories who have taken the Oaths. Price 1 d. and the Character of His Majesty King George, with a short Account of His Royal Family, and a Description of His Majesty's Dominions in Germany: In French and English. Price 3 d.

There is now in the Press, and will be very speedily Published,

A Translation of the Fifteen Books of Ovid's Metamorphosis, by the most eminent Hands. Adorned with Cuts, finely Designed and Engraved by the best Masters. Printed for Jacob Tonson at the [illegible] against Catherine-street in the Strand.

LONDON, Printed by J. Read, and Sold by R. Burleigh in Amen-Corner.